SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of McComb High School, in the year of our Lord Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Seven, Village of McComb, County of Hancock, State of Ohio, being of mature mind and judgement, finding it necessary and proper to dispose of our desirable and dearth possessions, do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

To the school we leave the remainder of our money to start a fund for needy teachers in case little blessings arrive unexpectedly. In this way future classes will not suffer the dire consequences that our class has endured.

To the Junior Class we leave our outstanding characteristics of training and leadership plus our old, much-used Honor Society pins, knowing that our goals of high quality will never again be achieved.

To the Sophomore Class we bequeath our beloved sponsor, Mrs. Ensign, providing they can produce as hilarious a junior play as we did.

To the Freshmen we will our superfluous personalities, gracious manners, exquisite facial features, which have been helped along by numerous plastic surgeons.

I, Janice Altman, bequeath Johnny's red curls to Larry Tyson so he can impress Mrs. Spitzer.

I, Anne Andonian, do hereby offer my love of wooly insects to Anita Kurtz providing she loves them with my enthusiasm.

I, Mark Deerwester, hereby will my love for Roberta Harden to Dennis Geren with the understanding that Saturday nights are for me.

I, Dan Dietrich, will my junior play nightgown to Arvina Swinehart providing her knees don't shake when she wears it in public.

I, Jerry Foltz, entrust my bashfulness to Brenda Holladay with the agreement she will stop begging me for dates.

I, Paula Foltz, will my RDX Tablets to Jo Fran Ferrell because she needs them worse than I do.

I, Darrell Gallant, will my cute wink and sweet smile to all the Freshman girlies who liked them so much this year.

I, Ronald Hale, donate my sleepy disposition in Government Class to all the unlucky Juniors who will find my posture-pedic mattress conveniently hidden in the cupboard.

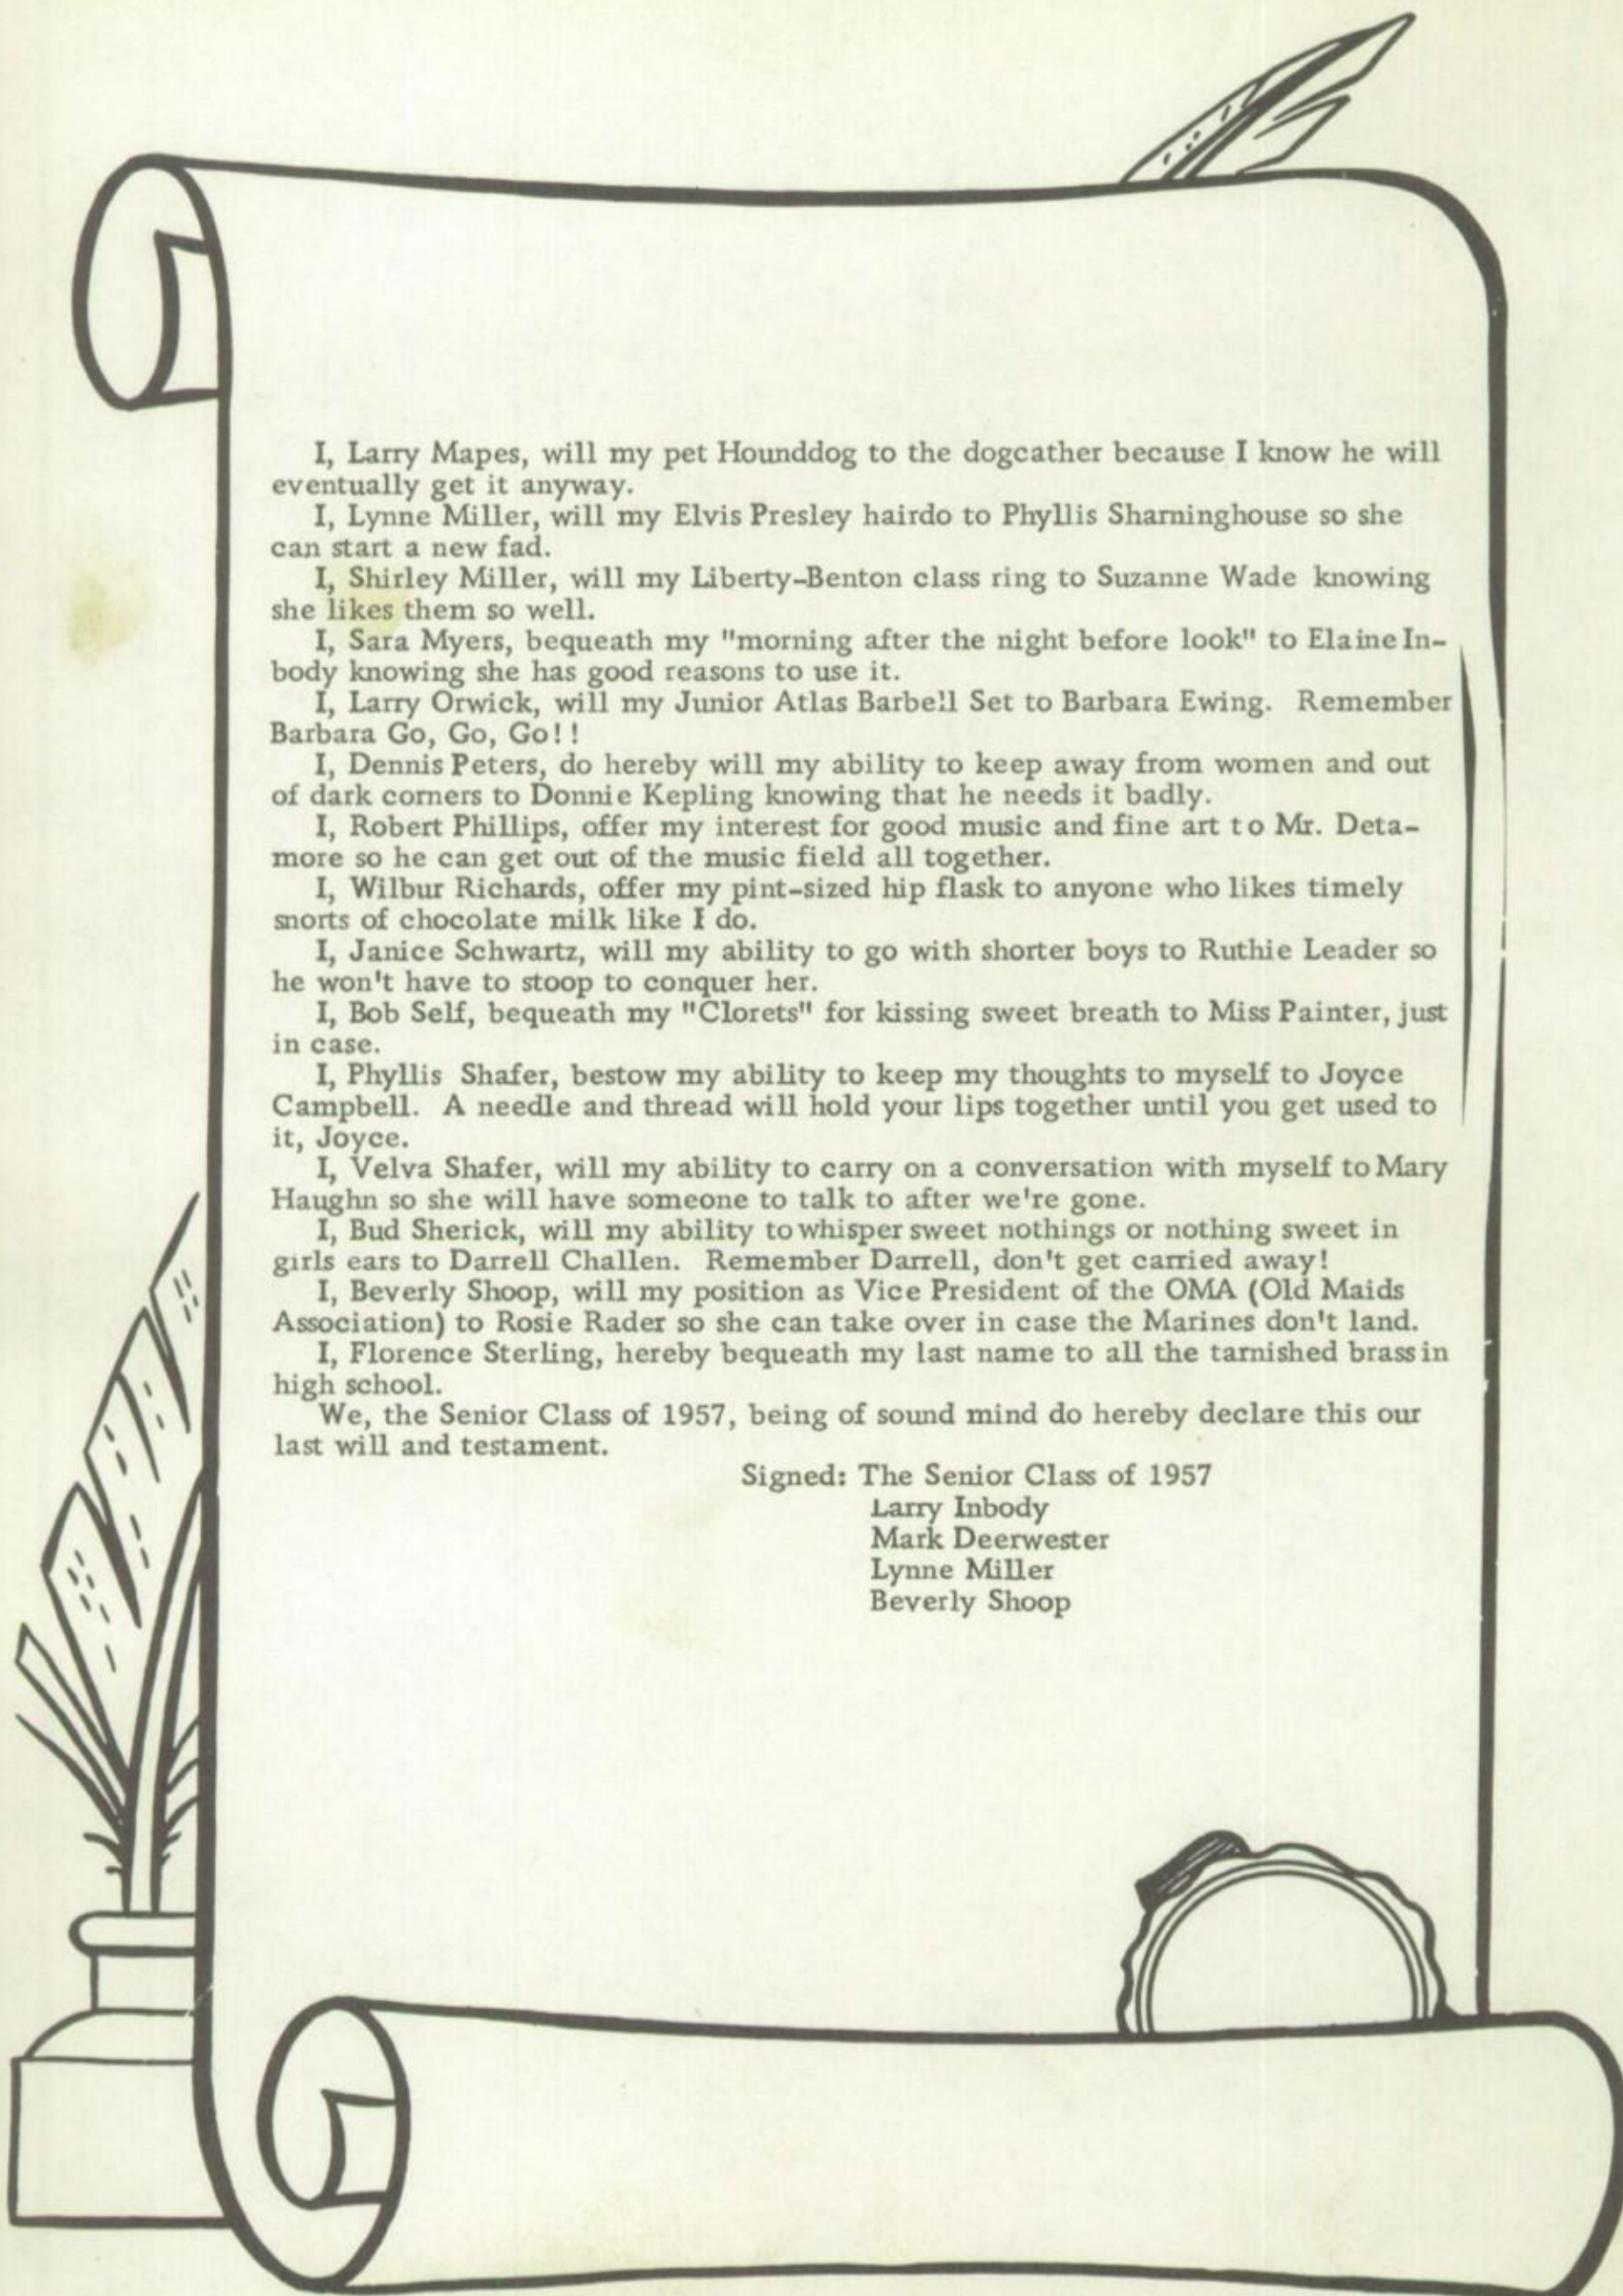

I, Jeanette Hermon, bequeath my hillbilly accent to David Gallant so he can impress the girls.

I, Larry Inbody, hereby will my moronic laugh to Diane Booth so she can develop her own idiotic giggle.

I, Phyllis Kersh, will my nickname "Legs" to Becky Shoop so she can snag Gary Geren.

I, Larry Klingler, will my ability to play football to LaVera Payne knowing she would like to get in the huddle with some of the players.

I, Shirley Like, bestow my three day school week and four day weekend to Charles Eberly so he can hold a part time job to raise money to send needy souls to college.

I, Larry Mapes, will my pet Hounddog to the dogcatcher because I know he will eventually get it anyway.

I, Lynne Miller, will my Elvis Presley hairdo to Phyllis Sharninghouse so she can start a new fad.

I, Shirley Miller, will my Liberty-Benton class ring to Suzanne Wade knowing she likes them so well.

I, Sara Myers, bequeath my "morning after the night before look" to Elaine Inbody knowing she has good reasons to use it.

I, Larry Orwick, will my Junior Atlas Barbell Set to Barbara Ewing. Remember Barbara Go, Go, Go!!

I, Dennis Peters, do hereby will my ability to keep away from women and out of dark corners to Donnie Kepling knowing that he needs it badly.

I, Robert Phillips, offer my interest for good music and fine art to Mr. Detamore so he can get out of the music field all together.

I, Wilbur Richards, offer my pint-sized hip flask to anyone who likes timely snorts of chocolate milk like I do.

I, Janice Schwartz, will my ability to go with shorter boys to Ruthie Leader so he won't have to stoop to conquer her.

I, Bob Self, bequeath my "Clorets" for kissing sweet breath to Miss Painter, just in case.

I, Phyllis Shafer, bestow my ability to keep my thoughts to myself to Joyce Campbell. A needle and thread will hold your lips together until you get used to it, Joyce.

I, Velva Shafer, will my ability to carry on a conversation with myself to Mary Haughn so she will have someone to talk to after we're gone.

I, Bud Sherick, will my ability to whisper sweet nothings or nothing sweet in girls ears to Darrell Challen. Remember Darrell, don't get carried away!

I, Beverly Shoop, will my position as Vice President of the OMA (Old Maids Association) to Rosie Rader so she can take over in case the Marines don't land.

I, Florence Sterling, hereby bequeath my last name to all the tarnished brass in high school.

We, the Senior Class of 1957, being of sound mind do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Our story starts as two up and coming rock and roll stars Larry "Cool Cat" Mapes and Jerry "Jerky Foot" Foltz decide to go out west for a vacation. Going with them is the rest of their band; Ronald "Fidgety Fingers" Hale and Dan "The Drummer Man" Dietrich. They decide to take a fleet of cabs known as the Klingler Klankey Klunkers owned and operated by Larry Klingler. Anne Andonian and Lynne Miller are drivers for the cross-country trip.

Going through the colorful western country, they come to a small town called Richardsville, run by the very successful gambler, Wilbur "Roulette" Richards. While in Richardsville, they stop for gas at Gallant's Gas Garage, operated by Darrell Gallant, and decide to spend the night at Hermon's Home for Hungry Hermits. Here they meet the caretaker Bud Sherick, who tells them about Inbody's Peaceful Panther Dude Ranch. It seems the ranch's entertainers have decided to leave and Larry needs someone to fill in for awhile while. The boys talk it over and decide they'll try anything once.

Since they aren't due at the ranch until the following morning the group decides to go over to the restaurant for supper. They walk in and see the famous Shafer Sisters dance duo, Velva and Phyllis at the first table. The girls have just starred in the Broadway hit "Dancing in the Waste Can." After dinner they see a familiar girl walk in. It is none other than their old classmate, Paula Foltz, who is now manager of the west's newest business, "Kersh's Kozey Koffins Inc." While they are eating, the floor show starts and out come the Daring Darling Sisters, Janice Altman and Florence Sterling who sing the latest hit, "Go to the Moon Soon." Going back to the hotel they all get a good night's sleep.

The next morning, bright and early, they arrive at the Peaceful Panther Dude Ranch where they are met by the rough-ridin', fast-shootin' foreman, Mark Deerwester and his glamorous sidekick Shirley Like. Mark shows them to the main ranch house where they are introduced to the guests. Among them are famous Conover models, Beverly Shoop and Sara Myers, and the Angelic Acrobats, Dennis "The Menace" Peters and Larry "Lightning Legs" Orwick. Also visiting is the T.V. comedienne Janice "Laughing Girl" Schwartz. Going into the kitchen they meet the head cook and bottle washer Robert Phillips and his number one assistant Shirley "Mean Mop" Miller.

Since they aren't due to sing until evening, "Cool Cat" and "Jerky Foot" try their luck on horseback. Going through a small tunnel they find themselves in a box canyon. All of a sudden they hear a terrifying laugh. They rocket back to the ranch and ask the foreman what the sound was. He told them it was the Hermit Rancher, Bob "Confirmed Bachelor" Self. It seems his girl had jilted him so he became a hermit.

Our story ends as we hear the soft twang of a guitar and our two heroes break break into song.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Seniors, at last we've made it, and do you remember when we began our high school careers four years ago in the Autumn of 1953. Now, suddenly it's all over forever, and we find ourselves looking back on those four years that were so filled with precious memories of our high school days.

In 1953, thirty-three very green little Freshmen began their strenuous climb to the top. After several somewhat bewildering days, we elected the following officers; President, Larry Orwick; Vice-President, Mark Deerwester; Secretary-Treasurer, Phyllis Kersh; Historian, Paula Foltz; Reporter, Beverly Shoop. Our Advisor was Mr. White. We selected for our motto "Enter to Grow; Depart to Serve." We chose for our class colors scarlet and gray, and for our flower, the white rose. Our class gained three new members; Rose Burnett, Dan Dietrich, and Sara Myers, but we were sorry to lose Larry Wilcox, who moved away in November.

Our history began to grow as we became Sophomores. Although we hadn't changed much, we thought we were 100% smarter and quite a bit older and more mature. Of course we soon found out differently. Our competent and helpful officers that year were President, Beverly Shoop; Vice-President; Phyllis Kersh; Secretary-Treasurer, Mark Deerwester; Historian, Rose Burnett; Reporter, Dennis Nagy. Mr. Schmunk acted as our class advisor. We gained Myles Sherick. Our biggest moment was when we voted for and selected our class rings.

Our half-way mark began with 30 Juniors, and bright, shiny rings. We were sorry to lose Janice Monett, Otha Sudlow, Rose Burnett and Dennis Nagy, but was glad to welcome Ila Rose Lindemeyer, Shirley Miller, Florence Sterling and Tom Palmerton. We then elected officers to serve the year. They are President, Beverly Shoop; Vice-President, Mark Deerwester; Secretary-Treasurer, Phyllis Kersh; Historian, Paula Foltz; Reporter, Ray Miller. Mrs. Ensign was our class advisor. Of the many big moments of our Junior year was the presentation of the class play "Grandad Steps Out" which was a huge success. Paula Foltz was chosen as a high school cheerleader. We worked very hard on our class projects of selling Christmas Cards and working at the concession stands at the basketball games. In May we honored the Seniors at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. We chose as our theme "Top Hat Club 56".

Twenty-eight seniors began in September for the final plunge. During the year we lost Shirley Winkle and Ray Miller, but we glad to welcome Dennis Peters and Larry Klingler. Our officers this year were President, Beverly Shoop; Vice-President, Mark Deerwester; Secretary-Treasurer, Larry Owwich; Reporter, Phyllis Kersh; Historian, Paula Foltz. We were honored to have Mrs. Ensign as our class advisor again this year. On October 5th our Mothers served a ham supper before the homecoming game. Queen Paula Foltz reigned over the game. We enlarged our treasury by the basketball concessions and saving tax stamps. Our play "A Broom for the Bride" was a great success. The highlight of the year was our trip to Washington and New York during which we took in all the beautiful sights of the Capital City. We wish to thank the Juniors for the nice banquet. Everyone enjoyed it. Here it is, the long awaited day, graduation. Beccalaureate was held at 2:00 and Commencement at 8:00 on May 19. This brought the grand finale of our high school days to the Class of 1957.

JUNIORS

The Junior Class began the year with thirty-six students and elected the following officers; President-Jack Myers, Vice-President-Roger Orwick, Secretary-Anita Kurtz, Treasurer-Ruth Leader, Reporter-Jerry Smith, Historian-Mary Ellen Adams, and our class advisor Miss Painter.

We were sorry to lose Carol Bulter, John and Jay Rea but glad to welcome June Hile.

November 2, we presented the play "Down To Earth" which was enjoyed by all.

As money making projects we sold Christmas cards and sold refreshments at some of the ballgames.

We were proud of the number of boys that were out for sports. Mary Ellen Adams was elected cheerleader.

In May, we carried the tradition and entertained the Seniors.

SOPHOMORES

Thirty-three students began the school year of '56-'57 as "Sophomores." We were all eager to learn and be on our way. As our class officers we chose the following: President-Russel Conrad; Vice President-Charles Cosner; Secretary-Jan Brickman; Treasurer-Judy Sheidler; Historian-Marlene Mapes; Reporter-Joyce Campbell.

We were sorry to lose Bill Grogg during the year to Van Buren, but glad to have a new member, Grace Halsey, from Findlay. Phillip Davis moved to Findlay but returned after six weeks.

We were glad that some of the boys took interest in sports, now we have some "lettermen". "Good work, boys." Marlene Mapes also had the honor of becoming one of the high school cheerleaders.

We earned money for our class this year by collecting tax stamps .

Our class advisor is Mr. Schmunk. He is a very good advisor, we all might add.

FRESHMAN

We started our High School career with fifty-one students, among which was a new student, Jerry Pierce, from Findlay.

We elected the following officers: President; Gary Geren, Vice President; Eddie Barker, Secretary-Treasurer; Marietta Morrison, Reporter; Diane Booth, Historian; Kay Martens. Mr. White was our advisor.

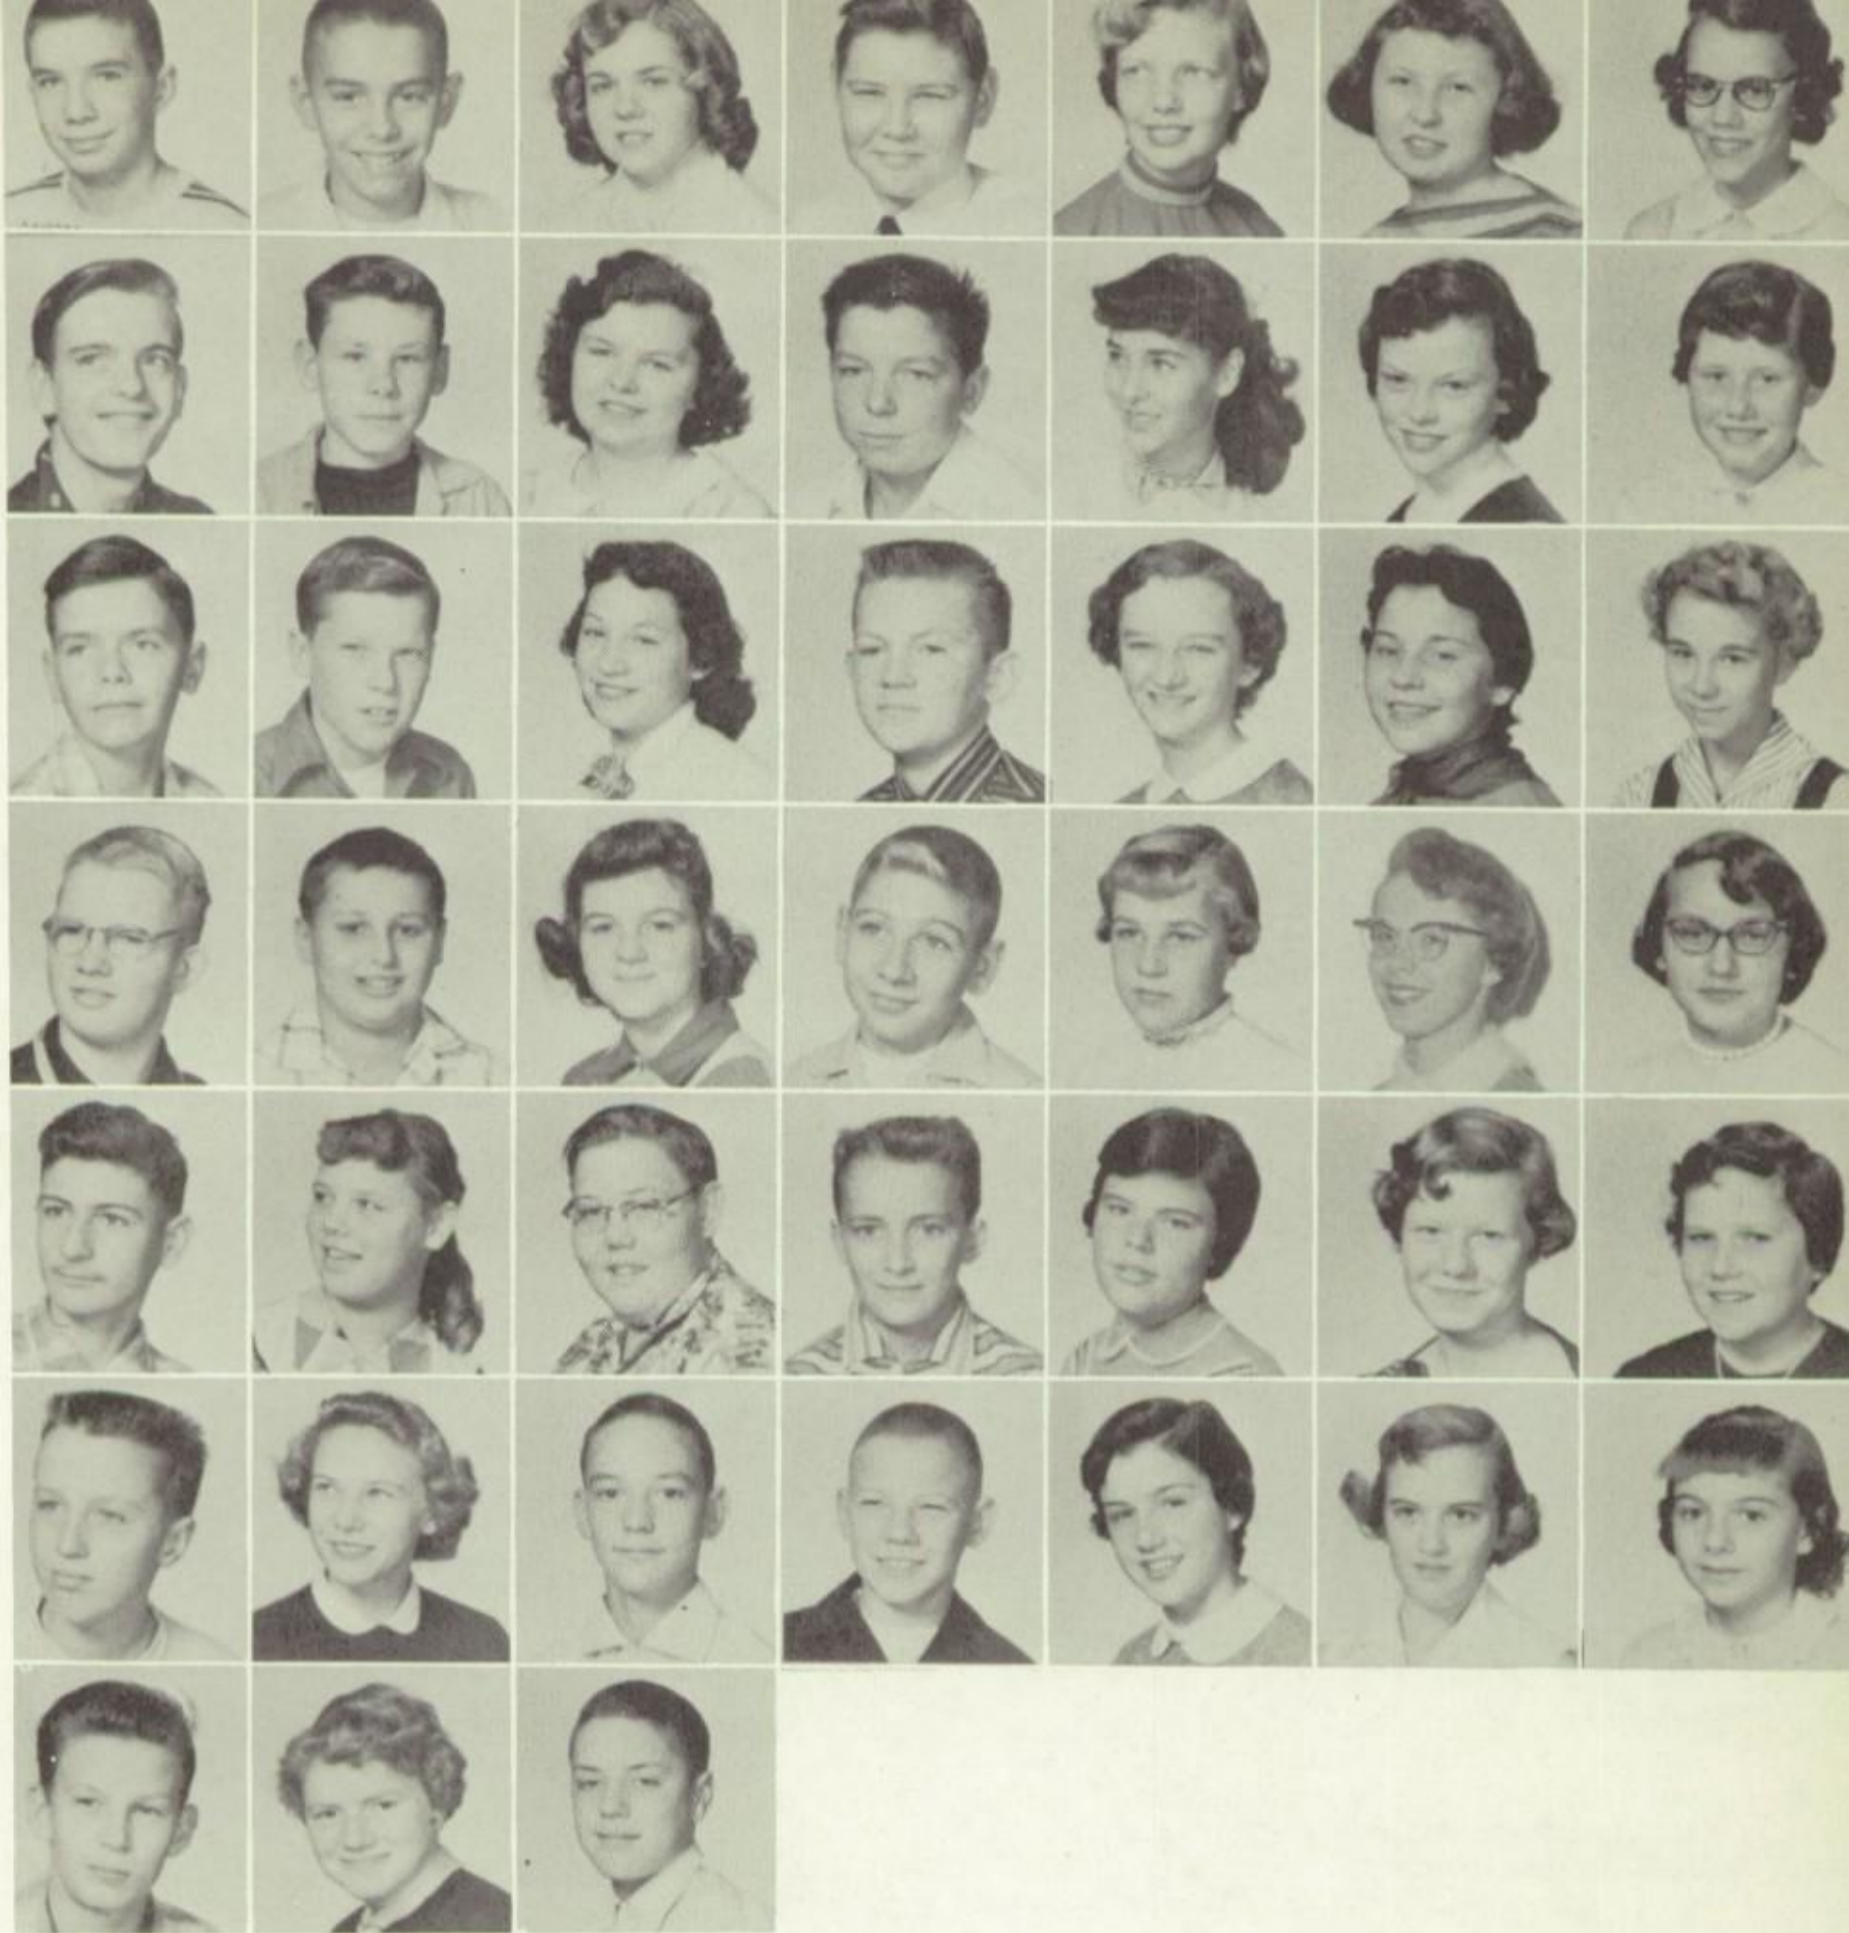

We, also, selected our motto, colors, and flower. Our motto is "A hard beginning makes a good ending." The colors are orchid and white. The flower is the yellow rose.

We were glad to have Diane Booth elected as one of our cheerleaders.

We were, also, very proud of the Freshman boys on the football and the basketball team.

FOOTBALL

We started the season with four lettermen, Larry Mapes, Jay Rea, John Rea, and Fred Alstartter. Although the Panther squad chalked up only one victory, the season can be considered a success in terms of valuable experience gained by players and coaches. McComb's lone gridiron victory came at the expense of Van Buren's Black Knights. This year's Panther Bowl Homecoming was spectacular except for one detail. Mt. Blanchard spoiled the evening for the queen by winning the contest. Next season should be even better as there will be nineteen lettermen ready for action.

PANTHERS

This year the team started with no lettermen and was rough sledding for a while. But among the boys was a will and determination to win. Our first game of the league we lost by 8 points to a highly ranked Vanlue team. The Panthers finely broke the ice in their league game by winning in an overtime 68-64 over Arcadia. The Panthers kept their winning streak going for one more week by downing Van Buren 77 to 70. The Panthers dropped the next two games in a row. Then came back to win the final league game 54-53 over Liberty-Benton. McComb drew Liberty-Benton in the tournament. The Panthers could not get going and were knocked from the ranks to the tune of 70-47. With eight lettermen this year and four returning lettermen back next year the Panthers have a prospective season.

BASEBALL

The McComb baseball team, though lacking experience, performed commendably this year. There were a lot of holes to be plugged up as the Panthers got underway because of the number of seniors lost through graduation.

Bob Phillips, a senior letterman, was called upon constantly for the pitching chores. Other help in this department came from Jerry Foltz and Roy Wise, Bob being the only experienced pitcher on the staff.

Other experienced lettermen included: seniors Larry Mapes, Bud Sherick, Bob Self, and junior Jan Nigh. Catcher Larry Mapes did a fine job of receiving and batting again this year. Bob Self and Bud Sherick again did fine work in the field and their experience helped bolster the team a lot. Jan Nigh was a great help in the field and at bat.

This year's team was, in some ways, a preview of the team to come. Several freshmen were members of this year's squad and their experience will lead to varsity jobs in the years to come.

HONOR SOCIETY

McComb is well represented again this year with 5 senior members and 10 junior members in the National Honor Society. An average of B or above, along with the characteristics of service, leadership, and character must be achieved in order to be eligible. Miss Eleanor Painter is the faculty advisor. The first meeting of the year was for senior members only. It consisted of bowling at the sportsman's Lanes in Findlay, followed by supper at McComb High School and a program. On February 13th a meeting for both junior and senior members was held at Van Buren. The formal banquet was held at Cory-Rawson in April.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The McComb Student Council, a member of the National Association of Student Councils, is composed of the Presidents, Vice-Presidents, and Secretaries of the upper six classes. These persons represent their classes in making various decisions through the school year.

At the first meeting, we chose officers to perside during the year as follows: President, Mark Deerwester; Vice President, Larry Orwick; Secretary-Treasurer, Anita Kurtz.

The Student Council sponsors various activities for the school. Among these were the Homecoming, and the Christmas Dance.

Everyone enjoyed the Melchor Marionettes and the Gloom Chasers which were programs sponsored by the Student Council.

Funds for the organization to carry on its projects were raised through a magazine sale carried on by the school.

G. A. A.

The Girl's Athletic Association promotes interest in sports, with the purpose of providing girls in the upper four grades with extra sport activity aside from the regular physical education classes. The group elected the following officers: President, Sara Myers; Vice President, Lynne Miller; Secretary-Treasurer, Paula Foltz; Reporter, Mary Stoepfel.

The group participated in bowling every Tuesday night at Sportsman Lanes Bowling Alley under the supervision of Miss Eleanor Painter.

F. H. A.

The Future Homemakers Chapter is composed of fifty-three high school girls. The group throughout the year is striving to fulfill our motto, "Toward New Horizons." Each meeting was based on one of the eight goals of our organization.

Our officers for the year are as follows: President, Anita Kurtz; Vice President, Mary Haughn; Secretary, Rosie Wasson; Treasurer, Connie Brickman; Parliamentarian, Paula Foltz; Historian, Phyllis Kersh; Reporter, Rosie Rader; Recreation leaders, Sara Myers and Jan Brickman; Refreshment chairmen, Susie Wade and Jeanette Hermon; Photographers, Jan Schwartz, Sue Rosenberbe, and Janice Altman. Mrs. Joe Shoop and Mrs. Robert Kurtz were selected as our chapter mothers. Mrs. N. J. Spitzer is our advisor.

Last April, Paula Foltz, Phyllis Kersh, and Beverly Shoop were awarded their State Homemaker Degrees at the State Convention in Columbus. Our chapter also received the Award of Merit.

During the month of April, the girls honored their mothers at the annual Mother-Daughter Tea. The main event of this occasion was the style review. It featured fashions created by the girls.

In November, we were the hosts of the bi-county meeting. We are proud to have Mary Haughn elected Parliamentarian of the bi-county organization.

At our December meeting we packed three large boxes of gifts for an orphanage in Japan. We also contributed $10.00 to UNESCO. Our donation assisted the Women's Community Centers in Tripoli, Libya. After the meeting our Chapter, along with the local FFA went Christmas caroling.

One of the Chapter's money making projects was a cookie sale.

On February, various members presented the emblem service and the meaning of F.H.A. to the local grange.

At the regular February meeting, the speaker for the evening was Sergio Elizonda, an exchange student from Findlay College. He showed slides of Europe and discussed life in these various interesting spots.

Our flower is the red rose and our colors are red and white. Red for courage and the firm determination to succeed and the white for purity.

F. F. A.

Our organization is composed of thirty-four high school boys. We are banded together because of our common interest in agriculture. To be enrolled in this organization you must have selected and completed one or more livestock or crop project. We strive to do tomorrow's tasks quicker, more efficiently and with increased abundance. Our motto is "Learning to do, Doing to learn; Earning to live, Living to serve." Our officers for this year are: President, Larry Inbody; Vice President, Larry Orwick; Secretary, Roger Orwick; Treasurer, Jack Myers; Reporter, Kenny Bryan; Sentinel, Jerry Foltz; Student Advisor, Robert Phillips. Our advisor is Mr. White.

We participate in the county Parliamentary Procedure Contest in which we won a silver award. Russell Conrad, Marvin Ritter, Larry Spitnale, Dale Smith represented our chapter at State FFA Camp last summer.

This year was climaxed by two main events. A Parent and Son Banquet was held in March and in June we had several judging teams representing our chapter at the state contests. Each event required the demonstration of the ability, tact and leadership we had acquired in the past year.

SENIOR PLAY

On April 12, the Senior Class Play, a comedy farce, "A Broom for the Bride" was presented.

The cast included: Clara Grey, an attractive, fluttery matron, Beverly Shoop; Bert Grey, Father of the household, Dan Dietrich; Josie, a domineering maid, Florence Sterling; Linda Grey, the attractive bride-to-be, Lynne Miller; Susie Jones, the neighbor's little girl, Shirley Miller; Mrs. Digberry, pompous, snobbish, society woman, Sara Myers; Ernest Digberry, the timid bridegroom, Larry Inbody; Miranda Gow, wealthy old eccentric from Boston, Janice Altman; Roger Hornblow, in his forties, a would be crook, Larry Orwick; Dolly Laurel, a romantic young lady, Paula Foltz; Tony Piper, a young reporter who stops at nothing, Mark Deerwester; Lola Lovelace, a faded stage star, Shirley Like; Deacon Merridew, a crotchety old woman-hater, Robert Phillips.

Summary of play; Linda, daughter of a socially pretentious mother, is set to marry Ernest, the mamma's boy of a supposedly wealthy mother. Linda's ex-fiancee, a reporter, turns up and sets his mind to breaking up this match. The wealthy aunt of the family--whom they haven't seen for many years, turns up and is mistaken by the flighty mother for the new maid; she is put to work.

A crook, posing as a society reporter, enters the house with his niece, he is after some valuable letters known to him to be concealed behind a family painting. The reporter disguises himself as the aunt from Boston: he disrupts the plans for the wedding and partially exposes some of the phony guests. Linda realizes she really loves the reporter. Together with her new fiancee, they dispose of the possessive mother of Ernest and enable him to marry the niece of the crook, who has reformed and has made a match with the wealthy aunt who has been mistaken for the new maid.

JUNIOR PLAY

On Friday, November 2, the Junior class presented a three-act fantasy, "Down to Earth", directed by Miss Painter.

The Prologue starts the story with two angels, Agnes and Wilfred, descending to earth to pick up a couple of elderly souls. However, their mission is complicated when a mischievous would-be angel, Pilone by name, joins them in a kind of heavenly hitch-hike. The two elderly souls are Augusta Applegate, a wealthy and sarcastic spinster, and Herman Howell, a kindly, retired sailor. Herman is ready to go; but Augusta hates to part with her money. Orpha Teel and Millie Bromsley, Augusta's nieces unconsciously side with the angels. Orpha desires a rich husband for her daughter, Ruthie, while Millie and her inventor-husband, Baxter, need Augusta's capital in order to make his inventions a success. Millie and Baxter's daughter, June, is engaged to marry Richard White, a young photographer. Pilone has the power of making people fall in love simply with his kiss. He tests his power on Ruthie, who falls in love with Robert Hanley. Diana Clump, Augusta's frustrated maid, who has just been jilted for the eleventh time, suddenly qualifies as an angel.

The cast is as follows: Agnes, Anita Kurtz; Wilfred, Roger Orwick; Pilone, Ralph Nigh; Augusta Applegate, Mary Haughn; Diana Clump, Barbara Ewing; Orpha Teel, Mary Ellen Adams; Ruthie Teel, Joleen Shank; Millie Bromsley, Ruth Leader; Baxter Bromsley, Kenny Bryan; June Bromsley, Linda Wagner; Richard White, Jan Nigh; Herman Howell, Gerald Aller; Robert Hanley, Jerry Smith.
